FIRE AT NORTH CRAFTSBURY

Buildings of Charles Root Burned Monday Morning—Total Loss. (Special to The Caledonian.)

AN UNCOMPLETED BURGLARY

Rev. Wilcock of Lyndon Loses Watch—Other Valuables Untouched.

Lyndon, Aug. 24.—What looks like an uncompleted burglary occurred at the home of Rev. Fred Wilcock, of Lyndon, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, some time between 9.30 a. m. and 5.30 p. m. Monday, when some one evidently entered the house while Mr. and Mrs. Wilcock were away and took a Waltham gold-cased watch from off a bureau in the bedroom. Although there were other valuables in the room, a lady's gold watch lying on a chair nearby, and a sum of money in bureau drawer, nothing except the watch was taken, which made it look as if the intruder was frightened away before he had a chance to take anything else.

The loss of the watch is felt keenly by Mr. Wilcock, not because of its intrinsic value but because it was a gift from his mother, now deceased, on his 21st birthday. The watch is an open-face Waltham. On the back of the case the initials F. W., are engraved with an inscription, and the date, July 13, 1913, engraved on the inside.

—The baseball game scheduled for Thursday has been cancelled but there will be games Friday and Saturday with the Fabyans and the Italian Athletic club of Barre, respectively.

The bridal party entered the church to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by an orchestra, accompanied by the pipe organ. Solos were delightfully rendered by Miss Emma Lavigne.

The bride was attired in a rich gown of white satin, trimmed with jet and gold. Her veil was caught with lilies of the valley and she carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and white asters.

The sunrise service of the Young Peoples' Union was in charge of Clifford Stetson of North Tunbridge and about 25 were in attendance.

Rev. George S. Rev. H. L. Canfield of Woodstock gave a brief outline of the work in Japan and of the Blackmer school for girls in Tokio, one of the principal Universalist missionary movements in the Far East.

The address delivered by Rev. Edison Reifsnider of Cambridge Mass., gave an idea of the general work and principals of the Universalist Missionary movement, and pointed out the need for greater effort along this line in all the local parishes and urged a greater identification of the church people with this movement, both at home and abroad.

Mrs. Wilkins expressed her opinion of the convention as "one of the best she ever attended," and then to impress more fully the need of foreign missionary work, told of instances in the Blackmer home for girls in Japan that had come under her observation relative to the work being done there.

HOLD SCHOOL OPENING

Two Weeks More Vacation for Vermont Scholars as Precaution Against Epidemic of Infantile Paralysis.

Burlington, Aug. 25.—Milo B. Hillegas today sent a notification to all school superintendents in Vermont that the schools of the state would not be opened this fall sooner than September 18. This action was taken by him on recommendation of the state board of health as a precaution against a possible epidemic of infantile paralysis.

The board of health decided upon this step at a meeting held here Thursday evening. The board ruled at the same time that the health officers might enforce any regulations they deem necessary in excess of those already made by the board in regard to quarantining children who come into Vermont from outside the state. There is not a case of poliomyelitis in the state at the present time and this step was taken as a precautionary move, experience in past years having shown that the greatest number of cases have appeared during the month of September.
